Hartley Raymond Rogers, Chairman of Hamilton Lane, focuses on the firm's strategic initiatives and direction, as well as its investment decision-making and client relationships. Having joined the firm in 2004, he has built cross-functional teams and a collaborative investment decision-making process, enhanced by state-of-the-art technology.

Hartley Rogers

Hamilton Lane is one of the largest allocators of private equity capital in the world with approximately $21 billion in discretionary assets under management along with oversight of an additional $125 billion in advisory assets. The firm is headquartered in suburban Philadelphia and employs more than 170 employees in eleven offices around the world. It prides itself on providing innovative private equity solutions custom tailored to a global, sophisticated client base that includes public and corporate pension funds, sovereign wealth funds, Taft-Hartley funds, financial institutions, insurance companies, foundations, endowments and high net worth individuals.

Previously Hartley was a Co-Head at Credit Suisse First Boston Equity Partners and a Managing Director in the private equity division at CSFB. He served as a Senior Partner and Investment Committee Member of DLJ Merchant Banking Partners III, and as a Co-Head of the United States and Canadian private equity department. Prior to joining the firm in 1997, he was a Managing Director at Morgan Stanley & Co.

Hartley is a Director of the Metropolitan Opera and serves on the Investment Committees of its endowment and pension funds. He holds an A.B. degree from Harvard College and an M.B.A. from Harvard Business School, where he was designated a Baker Scholar.

Our discussion will take place Friday, April 13, 2012 in the Lincoln Memorial Room at the Union League, which is located at Broad & Sansom Streets in Center City. A light breakfast will be available beginning at 7:30 AM with our discussion starting at 8:00 AM and ending promptly at 9:00 AM. The event is free to Sponsors, Patrons, and PBC Members. For others, the cost is $30 when pre-registered in advance, or $40 at the door.
